

GUIDE FOR THE ORAL PRESENTATION OF THE PhD STUDENTS AT THE END OF THE TERM

The duration of the presentation is 10 minutes + 5 minutes for discussion

1) Introduction

The importance of the topic, critical analysis of the literature, the problem to be solved, the basic idea of the work

Plan for the solution of the problem, the most important methods

Don't write full sentences on the slides, use bullets presenting the main issues.

The students of the first semester should concentrate on this chapter, later a very short summary is enough.

2) Short summary of the results presented in the previous semester(s)

3) Results of the actual semester

Research: A few figures and/or tables with letters of proper size

Don't put too many data on the slides, the audience can't follow them.

Publications

Courses completed, teaching activity, if any

4) Plans for the future work

Research

Publications

Status of the thesis

A short written summary (at most 2 pages, signed both by the supervisor and the student) on the work of the actual semester is also required.
