

DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF MATERIALS SCIENCES AND TECHNOLOGIES
Documents to be attached to the application for public defense
October 2020.

- a) Application form for public defense
- b) Professional CV
- c) List of publication (MTMT)
- d) List of the dissertation/thesis related publications and other publications with IF and citations*
- e) Copies of the publications
- f) Coauthors without PhD should declare their share the authorship for each publication (ratios in %)
- g) Declaration whether the applicant requests a delay of making the thesis and the summary public

Documents are to be submitted in electronic form (these documents are to be saved as separate files, numbering started with „a” and your name)

If the Council of the Doctoral School accepts the application, the applicant receives a decision, including the list of the members of the Defense Committee.

The final PhD thesis should include

- The front page as specified in Doctoral Regulation’s Enclosure (D10),
- The list of the members of the Examination and the Defense Committees as page 2,
- The list of the scientific publications presenting the independent results given in the summary,
- A statement that the applicant is the sole author of the thesis and that any result taken directly or indirectly from other sources is properly quoted.

The thesis must be submitted in electronic form, and 7 printed copies plus the documents listed as items a) ... g) should be submitted to the librarian, Mr. Bálint Bereczki (Doberdó u. 6 fsz. 1, phone 666-5976).

The summary should be submitted in electronic form, plus 25 printed copies.

* Minimal publication requirement for starting the process:

- At least five publications (appeared or accepted, in the latter case a certificate from the Editor or the Publisher is required), including
- at least 2 papers published in journals, possessing an impact factor and being included either in the Web of Science or in Scopus.
  - other publications according to the credit table